WEEK ONE - FILIPINO (3 to 9 August)

Monday 3 August, 8pm to 8.20pm UK Time

Duration: 20 minutes

Artist Lilibeth Cuenca Rasmussen will perform a Live Manifesto using Youtube Premiere. Once the Live has finished, the video will be available with subtitles after 3 days

Tuesday 4 August, 8pm to 9pm UK Time

Duration: 1 hour

A stream of Seeing Pilar, a documentary video from 2001. For three days artist Lilibeth Cuenca Rasmussen stays at her grandmother Pilar's place in a ghetto in Manila. Brought together inside the claustrophobic home, the powerful emotions transpiring between two women of conflicting value systems come to the fore. The video will be available to watch for 24 hours.

Wednesday and Thursday, 5 and 6 August

New work by artist Vanessa Scully sharing difficult experiences of living in a colored body, through a series of text-based gifs. Scully confronts the language used to describe and classify 'Asians', highlighting a problematic history of terminology perpetuating hate and difference. Scully collaborates with Filipino sex workers to establish equally comparable terms used to describe 'Whites'.
